

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XVIII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1890.

NO. 64

Pulaski's Capital Booming and the Democrats Hopeful.

SOMERSET, Oct. 7.—While trying to pass off Sunday afternoon looking over dusty books and hotel registers, my eyes fell upon an old one used by the Hicks House in '83. Glancing over page after page, my own signature was found and on thinking over the circumstances under which I had penned it, I was reminded that I had done so on my first trip to Somerset. It was just seven years ago to a week and was about the first trip I made for the Interior. I shall never forget that trip, for the work before me was new business and I was a stranger in a strange land. In fact, I had just launched on an unknown voyage and whether my ship should land in safety or not, I felt that that trip would decide. Fortune bestowed upon me to the amount of millions would not have made me feel better or bigger than I did when I had "made" Somerset and turned homeward, for I had had fine luck and my note book showed a lengthy list of new subscribers, while the pockets in my trousers were literally crisscrossed with silver and greenbacks. I was liberally patronized and thanks to the good people of Pulaski for it. They started in with a decided degree of generosity and have kept it up and "gone better" each time I have been fortunate enough to be with them.

As I said above, it has been 7 years since I first looked upon Somerset. Verily things do change every 7 years, and with the city of Somerset the change has been decidedly marked. There were no electric lights, no water works, no fire company, save the bucket brigade, and hardly a brick house in the town, and to make a long story short, there was very little of anything. Now the place is nearly as bright at night as day, a 125,000-barrel reservoir contains enough water to supply nearly all of the county, and pipes carry it to every part of town, a fire engine and hook and ladder attachment, complete in every particular, and lastly the old weather-boarded houses are replaced with imposing brick buildings that a city ten times its size would welcome the like of. It is easily seen that the county seat of the State of Pulaski is in a thriving condition and is growing like a healthy girl from the rural districts.

Monday was circuit court day and an unusually large crowd was in town. Luckily a heavy rain fell on Sunday night and the industries, but court-going farmer got in his work of going to town rather than of tilling the soil. It was good for the merchants, though, and they reported a fair day. Some stock was on the market, but the trade in cattle was about all done in that line, a large number changing hands at from $5 to $80.

The docket this court is a large one and the full time will be taken up. Only a few visiting attorneys had arrived up to Tuesday, but they'll get there, all the same.

The Land Co. will have another sale Oct. 15 and continue till as much real estate is disposed of as they desire. A more largely attended as well as a more profitable sale than the last one is hoped for.

The republicans are still split and it looks very much like they will continue so. Since the convention to elect delegates to the congressional convention at London was held, things have been rather equally and the prospects seem to point in a favorable direction for the democrats. Pulaski under democratic rule would look rather peculiar, but such a thing seems not impossible.

The democrats here are solid for D. H. Waddle as their standard-bearer in the bloody 11th. In conversation with him he informed me that he did not expect the nomination and did not care for it, but from other sources I learned that he could be induced to accept were the nomination unanimous. There is not a better man and he could come as near, if not nearer, redeeming that district than any man in it. Hurrah for Waddle!

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Hall are cozy fixed up in their new home on College street. They are both charmed with house-keeping and had the pleasure of entertaining her parents this week for the first time. Mr. Hall stands high in the esteem of the business men of Somerset and is filling with credit the position of teller in the Somerset Banking Co.'s office.

An exceedingly enjoyable hop was given Monday evening to Miss Willie Gibson, who leaves this week to spend several months in the South. The music was furnished by the "Young Orchestra" and was very good indeed.

E. C. W.

A freight train was thrown from the track of the Louisville Southern in Woodford by an obstruction left on the track by workmen, and Engineer Charley Harris was killed.

St. John Koyle, Esq., was nominated for congress by the republicans in the Louisville district. Mr. Caruth is opposed for the nomination by Mr. Hendley and a democratic primary will be called.

DEFERRED MATTER.

The Satellites of Mercury Ball.

Although noted far and wide for her many and her elegant social events, it is generally conceded that Kentucky has never in her history had an entertainment which surpassed in brilliancy or exceeded in enjoyableness the grand Satellites of Mercury ball at the Auditorium in Louisville, Thursday evening last. In fact, it was and is yet a stunner to the newspaper man, it matters not of how much experience, to attempt a description of "Think of it! beautiful women, the carefully selected 'pinks of perfection' of a dozen or more States, clad in raiment elegant and becoming, keeping time, gracefully to music that was fit for the gods and sending the sweet odor that came from flowers worn in profusion by them. Take the fair creatures alone, even with ordinary surroundings, and they formed subjects too large for a Watterson to 'tackle,' not speaking of a modest and unpretentious youth like myself. Besides beautiful women, there were other sights to look upon which dazzled the eye as well. In the first place, the auditorium was a sea of rare flowers exquisitely arranged. The stage where the Satellites and the Mads of Honor emanated from and afterwards formed a tableau was tastefully set and the splendor of the gorgeous costumes of the Satellites, together with the glistening of precious stones worn by the Mads, assisted greatly by feminine beauty, a scene was presented that filled the heart of each of the 10,000 or 12,000 people present and which even the more fortunate see not more than once in a life time. After the tableau the King and Queen headed the procession and Mads two and two and Satellites after the same order kept step to the march which lasted several minutes. Then came the Royal Lancers and afterward a waltz, when the escorts of the Mads and others who so desired took part in a grand ball as ever held.

The Mads of Honor were all pretty, and the renowned beauty, Miss Mattie Thompson, of Harrodsburg, and Lincoln's handsome representative, Miss Fannie Pennington, never looked lovelier. In fact, they were really and truly 'the belles of the ball,' and were decidedly the prettiest of the young ladies who were honored as Mads to the Queen.

The Queen, Miss Yandell, of Louisville, is not remarkable for her beauty, but is stately and graceful and bore the honors with much grace.

The costumes worn by the gentlemen represented characters of days gone by and were imported from Paris for the occasion. The crowns of the King and Queen were laden with diamonds and other precious stones, which added brilliancy to the brilliant occasion. The ball was a grand success and exceeded even the hopes of the most sanguine wishers.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—Mr. W. P. Tatem, who is shaped a little like Pete Hampton and who can make anything in the wagon line, from a dog-cart to a chariot, is coming to the front as a pumpkin raiser. We looked at a pumpkin vine in his garden the other day, which was 6 feet in length, had 51 prongs or shoots, full of the golden fruit, the biggest specimen of which was 3 feet and 6 inches long, 24 inches in girth and weighed 34 pounds.

—It is not often that the brandy-maker is driven to the necessity of telling the "boys" by a "tucked-up" notice where they can find "plenty of juice." Generally the "boys" catch on by human instinct before they're told, but it seems, 'twas not thus in a certain bushy shank of the woods, which we chanced to traverse lately. On a big oak by the road side, scrawled in a bold hand and basted to the bark of the tree with four sharp wooden pegs was this unique "ad.," which we will wager was understood: "Notis—What Do I say Beth and Taxes come to aww and aww who wants Good Brandy Cums too—Heze allus at Home."

—We heard a good story the other day which perhaps has never been in print, and which illustrates rather comically the naive veridancy often displayed by the average country "yap," who doesn't quite understand how some things are run. It was when John Gault ran the Knoxville Branch passenger train years ago. There lived in those days where the railroad makes a down-grade curve for Cedar Creek one Moses B——, a sturdy, but eccentric sort of character, one of your don't-care-what-the-world-thinks-of-me sort of fellows, who wore homespun jeans, knit suspenders and went nooping about with his head down as if trying to discover a new Potosi silver mine; yet thoughtful and shrewd as a briar in his peculiar way. Trains did not run then as fast as now, but on a down-grade stretch they went like greased lightning. One day as Gault's train a little belated, rounded the curve above Cedar Creek at a cat-in-the-hat speed, the engineer spied a man a few yards distant, standing in the middle of the track waving wildly his hat in his good right hand, and gesticulating most frantically with his left. The train was full of passengers and going at a high speed. There was the bridge beyond, spanning a stream so frightfully dangerous that the approach to it always makes the passengers' hair stand on end. The almost pained with apprehension the engineer sized up the situation at once, reversed his engine, applied the air brakes and shriekingly whistled for brakes. Heads popped out of the windows, those who were more anxious and less excited made a dash for the car platform, where the trainmen were making wry faces and skinning their hands in their desperate exertions to tighten the brakes and just a little beyond where the eager-eyed, excited countryman was standing with his hat still in his hand the train came to a stop. Capt. Gault, with a dozen fear-possessed passengers at his back hastened to the rear of the train, the captain demanding in hoarse, excited tones, "What's the matter? Where's the danger?" The countryman, who was nobody but Moses, looking at Gault with innocent, arch expression, replied "Say, I wanted to ax you 't you knowed 't I set my nunk trap under this culvert 't that's all!" "Tough, like most trainmen, seldom laugh, but this time the brimstone got hot, and jerking the bell cord as a signal to move on, he yelled back "D—n your fool soul, if I had a gun I'd kill you!" And it goes without saying that any jury in the land would have rendered a verdict of acquittal on the spot.

DEADWOOD, CASEY COUNTY.

—Deadwood is not the last place in the world, but it can only furnish one letter a week.

—Our tobacco men have about finished cutting tobacco and the crop is reported as ordinary good.

—Mrs. Mary Worch, of Kingsville, came down Friday to see her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Bowling.

—Henry Elms, whom whom we reported in our last as being dangerously ill, died last Thursday. He leaves a wife and several children, who have the sympathy of the community generally.

—Chestnut hunting is the principal occupation of the hals and lasses of this place just now and the destruction of young and valuable chestnut timber is simply outrageous, to say the least of it.

—Deadwood is situated on the C. & G. railway, 1 miles east of Yosemite. It was formerly known as "Covey," but a post-office has lately been established here and Wainmaker thought it best to call it Deadwood, lest a conflict of names might occur.

—Deputy Sheriff J. P. Lay arrested Miss Mary E. Bigney last Thursday, charged with assaulting Miss Ermine Powell, and she was tried before Squire Thos. S. Benson and acquitted. The trial was rather a funny one, as they were pupils of the same school and the slight having occurred in the school-house, the teacher and all his pupils were summoned as witnesses.

—Feland Snow, who it was thought, had deserted his family and eloped with one Sissie Hicks, returned home last Friday, after an absence of two weeks. It is reported that he gave Miss Hicks the money to prepare for the journey and she took the train here and was to join him at McKinney, but on reaching Kingsville she took a south-bound train and traveled in an opposite direction. Feland went on to Jeffersonville, Ind., and worked out money enough to pay his way back home, and is now trying to explain away the story concerning himself and Miss Hicks. The idea that he was beaten at his own little game seems to tickle everybody wonderfully.

—LOAN'S CREEK AND DIX RIVER.—Corn cutting and wheat sowing is in full blast.

—Mr. Joe Bout, Jr., has returned from Louisville.—Ed. Evans, our blacksmith, tells us that he raised a tomato that measured 16 inches in circumference.—J. T. Rush purchased in Clark county last week a mare and colt for $200.—It was $275 that W. R. Gaines sold his horse for, a profit of $75 in 6 weeks.—Miss Sallie Parrell, of Broadhead, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Stone.—Miss Mary S. Beazley, of Garrard College, was down Saturday to see her parents.—Co-operation and basket meeting convened at Rush Branch Saturday. There was a large attendance and the good old sisters as usual spread a most excellent dinner.—Mr. J. A. Amon has gone to Philadelphia, where he will remain until next June.—Mrs. J. M. Beazley has returned from the thriving city of Middleboro and will remain here a week or so. Her daughter, Miss Mollie, has gone thither to carry on her business.—John and Henry Traylor sold a small bunch of cattle to Ben Gaines at 24c.—Misses Bettie Leat and Dollie Brown, two bright and attractive young ladies of Garrard, have been the guests of Miss Alice Beazley.—J. B. McClary, R. E. and E. C. Gaines and P. A. Robinson attended the Forepaugh circus at Danville.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lear, of Lancaster, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends here.—Porter Robinson sold his house and lot in Crab Orchard for $300.—Mr. John Traylor has a fine boy.—F. K. Tribble was here Tuesday buying up Thanksgiving turkeys at 5 cents per pound.

California's Climate Changes and Other Matters of Interest.

SANTA BARBARA, CAL., Oct. 1, '90. DEAR INTERIOR.—Contrary to all precedent, as Californians aver, severe thunderstorms have raged in several portions of this State during the last week, accompanied by heavy rains in some places. No less than three storms have passed over Santa Barbara, one of which was almost as bad as those back East. It rained here at intervals from Thursday night till Monday morning, and on the latter day it came down in torrents. Complaints are heard from many places that the cloudy and damp weather is interfering materially with the curing of raisins, in others that the beans are being damaged, and in still other places that large quantities of wheat, left in the fields since harvest, without shelter, is greatly injured, as it ought to be, and the owners deserve no sympathy for their loss. Certainly, either the seasons here are fast changing, or the people are very forgetful. The weather has cleared up now and is as bright and pleasant as one could wish.

The statistics of the Northern Methodist Conference of the Southern Pacific Coast, the annual meeting of which was held here last week, show that it has made wonderful strides during the last five years since the Conference met in Santa Barbara before. Then there were but 40 ministers, now there are 130. The Sunday-schools have increased from 50 to 115, the church membership from 3,801 to about 10,000; the number of churches from 15 to 38 and the value of church property has increased $400,000.

The Summerland Natural Gas Co. is trying to induce the Pioneer Woolen Mills, of San Francisco, to move their plant to Summerland, and among the other advantages it offers the large amount of wool produced in S. Barbara county.

They say that on the island of Santa Cruz there are 90,000 sheep, on Santa Cruz, 55,000; on San Miguel, 5,000; on Anacapa, 3,000; on the great San Julian ranch, 20,000; besides a large number of smaller flocks in other portions of the county. A pretty good showing it would seem.

The official census returns give San Francisco 277,390 inhabitants, an increase in ten years of 144,000; Los Angeles 50,334, increase, 39,000; Oakland, 48,300, increase 14,000; San Diego, 34,000, Sacramento, 26,272; San Jose, 18,027; Stockton, 11,376; Santa Barbara, 7,400.

Several counties in Southern California have made arrangements for a permanent exhibit of their fruit and other products at Chicago, and the first shipment was started thither last week. It is their intention to increase the exhibit from time to time and supply it with fresh goods whenever necessary. California has applied for ten acres of space in the Columbian Exposition and expects to make the most attractive display of any of the States.

A Santa Barbara merchant had on exhibition a pumpkin, which for size is ahead of any I've yet seen. It measured nearly 7 feet around one way and 5 the other and weighed 181 pounds.

There is no great difficulty in raising lemons in Southern California, but the trouble comes in properly curing them so that they may have a pretty color, a thin and tough rind and be juicy. There are several ways of treating them, one of the best and simplest of which, perhaps, is given by a grower at Ontario. He picks the lemons any time during the year, when they have attained a diameter of 2 1/2 inches. They are cut from the tree instead of pulled and great care is taken in handling them, as a scratch or bruise is likely to cause decay. When picked they are laid on trays and stored in a cool, dark and well-ventilated room and occasionally inspected in order that any decaying fruit may be thrown out. He says that lemons treated in this manner, tho' picked six months, are in a perfect state of preservation, and will probably keep months longer without deterioration or material loss. Another method is to pack them in layers in chaff in a dark room until they have become of a rich color and juicy; and still another is to pile them under the tree in quantities of four or five bushels, subject to the varying sun and shade, going over them occasionally and throwing out any that may have decayed. The curing process generally consumes two to four months. The Southern Pacific R. Co. estimates that during the season of 1890-91, not less than 10,000 car-loads of fruit—fresh, dried and canned—will go East from California; worth perhaps $10,000,000.

Seven thousand cases of canned peaches were shipped from San Jose last week, direct to London. It took a special train of 20 cars to transport them to the Atlantic seaboard.

A Norwalk farmer claims to have realized this year $1,200 from 16 acres in potatoes and onions.

—The L. & N. will sell round trip harvest excursion tickets to all points in the west, south-west, south and south-west at one fare for round trip, on the 14th good for 30 days.

—Thomas C. Ball bought of Al. Candem three head of cattle for $37.50.

FOR SALE OR RENT.

HOUSE AND LOT IN WEST STANFORD. House contains 4 rooms and a small porch. There are about 1/2 acre in all. Also some chickens. Terms offered in good order. Apply to J. B. HIGGINS.

FOR SALE.

My Desirable Property known as Catron's Place, Somerset, Ky., Now running at $100 per month. For price, description and terms, write or call on me at Somerset, Ky. WM. M. CATRON.

NEW FIRM.

Having this day obtained last week, I have entered into partnership with my brother, John L. Elms, under the firm name of M. F. Elms & Co. to take effect Oct. 1st. Persons knowing themselves indebted to our old firm, or to our new firm, are requested to call on us at once and settle their accounts. We are now in a position to do business on a more extensive scale than ever before. We are now in a position to do business on a more extensive scale than ever before. We are now in a position to do business on a more extensive scale than ever before.

Farm For Sale.

I offer for sale precisely the Henry Hester farm of 40 acres, situated on the R. R. at the corner of the R. R. and the R. R. The dwelling has 6 rooms, there is a new barn, good well, fence and fencing nearly new. Terms cash, or on time and interest. If not sold will be sold at auction. Possession given January 1, 1891. J. W. ADAMS, Stanford, Ky.

Fruit Trees For Sale Cheap.

I have a fine lot of Apple Trees, large Vines and Raspberry Plants, of my own raising, for sale. Apple Trees 15 cents each, and others in proportion. I will be pleased to furnish you with a list of prices. F. L. SIMPSON, Stanford, Ky.

FARM FOR SALE.

We offer for sale privately our farm known as the George Anderson place, 1/2 mile from Hustonville, on the Liberty pike, containing 1/2 acre, well fenced, with a good well and watered. Call on or address us at Hustonville, Ky. JOHN ELLIS, MARY ELLIS.

Public Sale of Stock.

In order to raise for our present partnership, we will sell at public auction at the residence of Jas. W. Mason, 4 miles west of Mt. Sterling, Ky., on Wednesday, October 22d, 1890.

The following stock, to-wit: 40 Jennets, 12 Jacks, 20 head of Horses.

Including No. 4 Brand Mares and several extra young stallions and geldings.

Catalogues sent on application. MASON & HENRY, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

On the following day:

Thursday, October 23d, 1890,

Clayton Howell will sell

25 head of Jennets and 35 or 40 head of Horses

Of various kinds. Sale to take place in Mt. Sterling. Catalogues sent on application.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1890,

At my residence about one fourth mile north of McKinney, on the Hanging Fork Turnpike, Lincoln county, Ky., sell at public auction to the highest bidder, all of my Stock, Crop and Farming Utensils, consisting of:

Seven head of Horses, among them a year-old gelding, very fast in harness, and one good family harness horse; 1 Jersey Cow, all of them good milkers; 1 Jersey Bull, head of Hogs, and one year of excellent work cattle; two barrels of Corn in the field; 1 Baggy and Harness, 1 new Buckboard and Harness; 1 Spring Wagon, Pole and Double Harness; a lot of Clover Hay in the barn and Household and Kitchen Furniture.

Also the Farm of about 47 Acres of Land, on which live, This is a very desirable tract of land and is in a good state of cultivation. The improvements consist of a good comfortable dwelling of 6 rooms, also dining room, summer and winter kitchen, and a new house, large and well arranged barn and all other necessary improvements.

Terms.—The personalty will be sold on a credit until January 1, 1891, for all sums over $10, the purchaser giving note with approved security, negotiable and payable in the National Bank of Hustonville, until that sum is cash must be paid.

The farm will be sold for one-third cash; the balance in 6 and 12 months, in equal installments, to bear 6 per cent. interest date.

Possession given as soon as terms of sale are complied with.

H. T. Bush, Auctioneer.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1890,

At my residence about one fourth mile north of McKinney, on the Hanging Fork Turnpike, Lincoln county, Ky., sell at public auction to the highest bidder, all of my Stock, Crop and Farming Utensils, consisting of:

Seven head of Horses, among them a year-old gelding, very fast in harness, and one good family harness horse; 1 Jersey Cow, all of them good milkers; 1 Jersey Bull, head of Hogs, and one year of excellent work cattle; two barrels of Corn in the field; 1 Baggy and Harness, 1 new Buckboard and Harness; 1 Spring Wagon, Pole and Double Harness; a lot of Clover Hay in the barn and Household and Kitchen Furniture.

Also the Farm of about 47 Acres of Land, on which live, This is a very desirable tract of land and is in a good state of cultivation. The improvements consist of a good comfortable dwelling of 6 rooms, also dining room, summer and winter kitchen, and a new house, large and well arranged barn and all other necessary improvements.

Terms.—The personalty will be sold on a credit until January 1, 1891, for all sums over $10, the purchaser giving note with approved security, negotiable and payable in the National Bank of Hustonville, until that sum is cash must be paid.

The farm will be sold for one-third cash; the balance in 6 and 12 months, in equal installments, to bear 6 per cent. interest date.

Possession given as soon as terms of sale are complied with.

H. T. Bush, Auctioneer.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1890,

At my residence about one fourth mile north of McKinney, on the Hanging Fork Turnpike, Lincoln county, Ky., sell at public auction to the highest bidder, all of my Stock, Crop and Farming Utensils, consisting of:

Seven head of Horses, among them a year-old gelding, very fast in harness, and one good family harness horse; 1 Jersey Cow, all of them good milkers; 1 Jersey Bull, head of Hogs, and one year of excellent work cattle; two barrels of Corn in the field; 1 Baggy and Harness, 1 new Buckboard and Harness; 1 Spring Wagon, Pole and Double Harness; a lot of Clover Hay in the barn and Household and Kitchen Furniture.

Also the Farm of about 47 Acres of Land, on which live, This is a very desirable tract of land and is in a good state of cultivation. The improvements consist of a good comfortable dwelling of 6 rooms, also dining room, summer and winter kitchen, and a new house, large and well arranged barn and all other necessary improvements.

Terms.—The personalty will be sold on a credit until January 1, 1891, for all sums over $10, the purchaser giving note with approved security, negotiable and payable in the National Bank of Hustonville, until that sum is cash must be paid.

The farm will be sold for one-third cash; the balance in 6 and 12 months, in equal installments, to bear 6 per cent. interest date.

Possession given as soon as terms of sale are complied with.

H. T. Bush, Auctioneer.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1890,

At my residence about one fourth mile north of McKinney, on the Hanging Fork Turnpike, Lincoln county, Ky., sell at public auction to the highest bidder, all of my Stock, Crop and Farming Utensils, consisting of:

Seven head of Horses, among them a year-old gelding, very fast in harness, and one good family harness horse; 1 Jersey Cow, all of them good milkers; 1 Jersey Bull, head of Hogs, and one year of excellent work cattle; two barrels of Corn in the field; 1 Baggy and Harness, 1 new Buckboard and Harness; 1 Spring Wagon, Pole and Double Harness; a lot of Clover Hay in the barn and Household and Kitchen Furniture.

Also the Farm of about 47 Acres of Land, on which live, This is a very desirable tract of land and is in a good state of cultivation. The improvements consist of a good comfortable dwelling of 6 rooms, also dining room, summer and winter kitchen, and a new house, large and well arranged barn and all other necessary improvements.

Terms.—The personalty will be sold on a credit until January 1, 1891, for all sums over $10, the purchaser giving note with approved security, negotiable and payable in the National Bank of Hustonville, until that sum is cash must be paid.

The farm will be sold for one-third cash; the balance in 6 and 12 months, in equal installments, to bear 6 per cent. interest date.

Possession given as soon as terms of sale are complied with.

H. T. Bush, Auctioneer.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1890,

At my residence about one fourth mile north of McKinney, on the Hanging Fork Turnpike, Lincoln county, Ky., sell at public auction to the highest bidder, all of my Stock, Crop and Farming Utensils, consisting of:

Seven head of Horses, among them a year-old gelding, very fast in harness, and one good family harness horse; 1 Jersey Cow, all of them good milkers; 1 Jersey Bull, head of Hogs, and one year of excellent work cattle; two barrels of Corn in the field; 1 Baggy and Harness, 1 new Buckboard and Harness; 1 Spring Wagon, Pole and Double Harness; a lot of Clover Hay in the barn and Household and Kitchen Furniture.

Also the Farm of about 47 Acres of Land, on which live, This is a very desirable tract of land and is in a good state of cultivation. The improvements consist of a good comfortable dwelling of 6 rooms, also dining room, summer and winter kitchen, and a new house, large and well arranged barn and all other necessary improvements.

Terms.—The personalty will be sold on a credit until January 1, 1891, for all sums over $10, the purchaser giving note with approved security, negotiable and payable in the National Bank of Hustonville, until that sum is cash must be paid.

The farm will be sold for one-third cash; the balance in 6 and 12 months, in equal installments, to bear 6 per cent. interest date.

Possession given as soon as terms of sale are complied with.

H. T. Bush, Auctioneer.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1890,

At my residence about one fourth mile north of McKinney, on the Hanging Fork Turnpike, Lincoln county, Ky., sell at public auction to the highest bidder, all of my Stock, Crop and Farming Utensils, consisting of:

Seven head of Horses, among them a year-old gelding, very fast in harness, and one good family harness horse; 1 Jersey Cow, all of them good milkers; 1 Jersey Bull, head of Hogs, and one year of excellent work cattle; two barrels of Corn in the field; 1 Baggy and Harness, 1 new Buckboard and Harness; 1 Spring Wagon, Pole and Double Harness; a lot of Clover Hay in the barn and Household and Kitchen Furniture.

Also the Farm of about 47 Acres of Land, on which live, This is a very desirable tract of land and is in a good state of cultivation. The improvements consist of a good comfortable dwelling of 6 rooms, also dining room, summer and winter kitchen, and a new house, large and well arranged barn and all other necessary improvements.

Terms.—The personalty will be sold on a credit until January 1, 1891, for all sums over $10, the purchaser giving note with approved security, negotiable and payable in the National Bank of Hustonville, until that sum is cash must be paid.

The farm will be sold for one-third cash; the balance in 6 and 12 months, in equal installments, to bear 6 per cent. interest date.

Possession given as soon as terms of sale are complied with.

H. T. Bush, Auctioneer.

First-Class Farm For Sale.

Well improved, containing 100 acres, on Hustonville and M. K. pike, in a splendid neighborhood. For further particulars call on the undersigned, or write to Hustonville, Ky. E. D. KENNEDY, 52-110.

FOR SALE!

Lot on Main Street in Stanford

Containing 1 1/2 acres

Terms cash T. R. WALLON, Stanford.

For Sale!

Twenty Building Lots

In the corporate limits of Rowland

H. J. DAKS, Rowland.

LINCOLN CO. FARM For RENT.

The undersigned will rent for the year 1891, on reasonable terms, her farm of 200 Acres, 1/2 mile from Hustonville, Ky. The tenant can have the privilege of seeing this farm. Apply to Mrs. NANCY JENKINS, Danville, Ky.

House and Lot at Crab Orchard For Sale.

A House and Lot, consisting of 1/4 Acre, bounded at Crab Orchard, Ky., and known as the Slave property, one block from Depot. The house contains six spacious rooms, one lattice porch, one open porch and porch, with all necessary outbuildings. Call on or address D. B. Edmonson, Crab Orchard, Ky., or at Danville, Ky. SAMUEL BLAIR, M. D.

Farm For Sale.

I desire to sell my farm of about 130 acres, situated about 1/2 mile north of Stanford on the Rush Branch pike, opposite the old church. There are about 10 acres in wheat and rye; the balance of the farm well set in timothy. 1500 dwelling of four rooms and kitchen and a splendid new barn; is well watered and fenced. Possession can be given immediately. For particulars, see J. P. Bailey, Stanford, or write the undersigned at Cincinnati, Ohio. E. WITHERS.

FOR SALE!

I wish to sell privately my residence and property. The house has five rooms, store room, pantry, fruit veranda, back porch, latrine, good cellar with

W. P. WALTON.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Congress,

JAMES B. McCREARY.

The entire number of enlisted men on the Federal side in the late war, including those who served 60 days or less, was 2,772,408. Of these 61,392 were killed in battle, 34,727 died of wounds, 183,287 of disease, 199,105 deserted and 29,725 died in Confederate prisons. The war ended 25 years ago last April, yet Commissioner Baum's report shows that there were on the pension rolls at the close of the fiscal year, 527,741 pensioners, 66,937 of whom had been added during the 12 months, and they are still coming in by the thousands. This vast army is now supported either in semi or total idleness by the people of the United States, who seem to have no rights that these pensioners upon their bounty dare not claim. In addition to the pensioners, the government also supports at a cost of many millions more, numerous soldiers' homes, where thousands of ex-soldiers live in ease and plenty. This is the record of those who seem to have gone in to the war for the money there was in it, present and prospective, and not for the love of country. Let's see how the other side stands. There is no absolutely correct record of those who enlisted for the lost cause. They were, of course, a great deal less than the Federal army, though indeed a vast number. What has become of the survivors and who supports them? Returning from the war, broken in health many of them, to find their homes and their property swept away, they did not sit down to nurse vain regrets and idle murmurings, but resuming peaceful occupations, they worked out their own fortunes and made themselves useful and worthy citizens, many of them becoming as distinguished in civil affairs as they had been on the battle field. They had no government to look to for support, and being of sterner stuff than to allow their neighbors and friends to take care of them, they relied on their own exertions, and the result is that few of them are paupers anywhere and the remarkable statement is made that here in Kentucky there are only three ex-confederates who are inmates of poor-houses. This is one of the differences between the two armies, and the results show that the policy of our paternal government towards its old soldiers is not only a severe tax on the country, but an absolute premium for mendacity and pauperism. A good many pensioners get so much money they do not have to work and others are afraid to work, even when they are able, for fear their pensions may be cut off. It is nothing but right and proper that the U. S. should take care of those who were wounded in battle or injured otherwise and who are not able to make their own living, but politicians, in order to buy the soldier vote, have heeded the demands of the coffee coolers and their agents till our pension enactments have not only created an onerous burden, but have become absolutely nothing more nor less than legalized methods for looting the treasury.

WEST VIRGINIA republicans admit that they are into a scheme concocted by Senator Quay and others to colonize that State with negroes in order to carry it for their party in 1892. Every effort is going to be put forth by the party in power to hold on to the government's purse-strings, but if there is anything in the signs of the times, their death struggle will go for naught. The republicans, like the thief, have had all the rope they want, and like him, they have about succeeded in hanging themselves.

SOME of the Baptist members have petitioned the convention to give preachers the same show as other people in politics and expunge the clause from the constitution prohibiting them from serving in the legislature. Well, we do not see that the prohibition amounts to much. If a preacher is any account in the pulpit and is in earnest about doing his Master's work, he'll not give it up to grovel in the dirt of party politics.

GEN. W. J. LANDRUM says he is out of politics and will not run for Congress against Gov. McCreary and Woodford G. Dunlap says positively that he is not in it. A. B. Burnam, Esq., has also asserted that he would not be a candidate, so if the republicans offer a lamb for the sacrifice, it will have to be a very sorry white or a very black one.

SECRETARY BLAINE has declined the urgent appeals of McKinley and his crowd to go to Ohio and help him out, on the grounds of pressing business, but the real reason is that he is not especially in love with the author of the tariff bill or any of his followers. Brer. Blaine believes in reciprocity, which is another name for free trade.

An attempt was made to assassinate Congressman C. R. Breckinridge while he was speaking in his canvass at Centre Ridge, Ark., Wednesday night. The weapon snapped and the life of a good man was spared.

RUNE BYRNOS, for years a successful southern train robber and desperado, was captured by a farmer, with the assistance of a couple of negroes, and taken to jail. He was taken unawares and seized while eating at a table. His captors bound him hand and foot, yet in this condition he got loose for them. He claimed to be hungry and asked that his saddle-bags be handed him to get some crackers. It was lone and instead he jerked out his two pistols and forcing the men to unbind him, locked them up and went to hunt the deputy sheriff, who had the hoodie captured with him. The officer was in bed sleep at the hotel and he went there and demanded his money. Without replying the officer seized his pistol, when Barrows fired, striking him in the shoulder. Quick as lightning a bullet sped from the deputy's pistol, which entered the outlaw's abdomen, and in a few moments the terror of Alabama was a corpse. Barrows could easily have gotten away, but liberty without money was no object to him. The officer at once put in his claim for the $7,500 reward offered for the body of Barrows, dead or alive.

NEW MEXICO has more population than Wyoming and Idaho combined—142,862, and is justly entitled to Statehood, but her knocking at the door will not be heeded so long as the republicans are in power. That party makes States only out of such boroughs as will furnish them more Senators and Congressmen to do their dirty work. New Mexico is reliably democratic and therefore not entitled to justice.

THE determination of Col. W. M. Hull to leave the Courier-Journal and go on the road as agent for Julia Marlowe, will be deeply regretted by his friends of the quill. He is too good a writer and too admirably equipped for newspaper work to give it up for any other business, even if it be more remunerative. We hope and believe, though, that he will be back in the harness before many moons.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

—We are indebted to Hon. W. H. Miller for the Convention Daily Record, which is a verbatim report of everything said and done in the body.

—Mr. Miller offered a resolution for the appointment of a committee for the preparation of an address to the people of the State upon the submission of the new constitution.

—After much useless and some silly debate the clause of the constitution forbidding the creation of any more counties with less than 100 square miles of territory was at last adopted. It also provides that no new county be established which shall reduce any county to less than 12,000 inhabitants. Nor shall any county be formed containing a less population and no proposition shall be acted on except by a majority vote of the county from which the territory is to be stricken.

NEWS CONDENSED

—Indiana's official census shows a population of 2,130,030, an increase of 210,719, or 10.75 per cent.

—Col. Phil B. Thompson jumped from his buggy when his horse started to back in Kentucky river and was seriously hurt in the fall.

—Gov. Campbell, of Ohio, has called an extra session of the legislature to consider legislation relative to the government of Cincinnati.

—The Louisville Base Ball Club now wears the pennant, having won more games than any other in the Association. Of the 125 games played it won 83 and lost 42.

—Tom Woolfolk, who boarded ten members of his father's family in Bibb county, Georgia, three years ago, has for the second time been sentenced to death. The case is the most notable in the criminal annals of Georgia.

—Two pouches containing registered letters, 130 in number and valued at $10,000, were stolen from a mail wagon in Louisville Tuesday night while being conveyed to the depot. The pouches were recovered along with the ordinary letters, but the robbers are still non est.

KINGSVILLE, Oct. 7.—Health in this part of the county is extra good, notwithstanding the long rainy weather.—The corn crop is better than usual and is about out of the way of Jack Frost. Stock is looking well, especially hogs, as there is an abundance of acorns and chestnuts.

—Kingsville is improving; W. L. McCarty is erecting a large store-house on the corner of Main and Church streets, 30x50 feet, 2 stories high, with a spacious hall above. We would suggest an order in this hall, say Old Fellows. Why can not a quorum be gotten here? We also have a good hotel and a well regulated saloon in our town, where the weary traveler can rest and our prohibition friends can quench their thirst, with good spring water, if they like.—The protracted meeting is still going on, with 45 additions to date. Bro. Allen, of Danville, is conducting the services.—Mrs. Ida Ray is visiting at C. L. Hensley's, near Pleasant Point, this week.—Boone Bros., of Maywood, bought of C. L. Hensley 19 mountain ewes at $3.50.—It will soon be time for the assessor, and there has been quite an imposition on some of the people here by their being listed for twice the value of their property, not by the lister, but by the county board of equalization. Some land at $16 and adjoining lands at $4, both the same quality and improvements. This does not look like equal and exact justice to all men and exclusive privileges to none, which is the corner stone of democracy.

HUSTONVILLE.

—The meeting continues at Moreland and great good is expected to result.

—Young Goodell's wounds have assumed a threatening aspect and probabilities are said to be against recovery.

—Freely and Sam Peacock are at home after a three weeks' trip over Southern Kentucky in the interest of those whose eyesight is defective. The trip was profitable all around.

—Squire Adams is universally voted a great public benefactor since he sold that spotted bull, which has long had uncontested right of way in its numerous rambles. Dave Allen sold J. P. Lefe 20 short yearling steers at 2 1/2 to 3 cts. per pound.

—In a general discussion of the fruits of big revivals of religion, and the uncertainty of holding in the traces a majority of the male converts, Mike Quinlan declared that the only sure way is "just as soon as they make the good confession, shoot 'em."

—John Drye has been as grim and spiteful as a Thomas Cat at lunch since it appeared that an ungrateful constituency would relegate Finley to mountain quietude, and defiantly proclaims that he has a $5 note to contribute to Finley's independent campaign fund. John's democracy discounts Jeffersonian, if "his possible."

—The regret is general that Gov. McCreary's time to be devoted to his canvass is so limited that his appointments include only points where the stock is breechy and the fences insecure. It goes without saying that it is a matter of course that Hustonville doesn't need looking after and only regrets that Mahomet must step over to the mountain.

—Ben Hawkins, one of the best land surveyors in the State, was in town Tuesday on professional business. Though living within earshot, he visits town so infrequently that his oldest acquaintances were unable to positively contradict the report that Ben had been translated. Mr. Lewis Hunsing and family, of Somerset, are visiting Mrs. Hunsing's brothers, John and Sam Bent.

—The Casey delegation got in from London by an early train Saturday morning, arriving here with enthusiasm over the graceful, eloquent and masterly manner in which their candidate, Col. Silas Adams, responded to the call of his friends and admirers after Wilson had secured the unanimous endorsement of the convention. Joe Huffman and John Moore were fresh as daisies and predicted that Adams' success at the next convention was inevitable.

—Mr. L. C. Dunn and Miss North, late of Middlesboro, were married Thursday morning at Danville. James B. Cook and Miss Anna Reid were the attendants. The party proceeded to Cincinnati by the first train. "Bad" is one of the most thrifty and enterprising young farmers of the West End and this notice will be a surprise to the majority of his acquaintances, as he has been regarded as an unconvertible misogynist. [Yes, we suppose they were married, but not without a good deal of trouble was the knot tied. The clerk of Boyle refused to grant marriage license and the intended bridegroom and his best man had to come to this place to get the necessary papers. Ed.]

—Mrs. Julia Wright, nee Bradley, after seven weeks' confinement by inflammatory rheumatism, is out on crutches. Mrs. W. has evinced the fortitude of ancient martyrs in her protracted sufferings, the excruciation of which can only be suspected by those who have had a first-class attack of osteodinia. Messrs. Wm. Hatley, a veteran and popular dealer in general produce, and J. W. Hawkins, lately elected common school commissioner, two of the North Fork of Casey county's best citizens, were welcome visitors last Monday. Come often, gentlemen.

—Several of us had urgent business at Danville last Saturday and were persuaded to attend the circus after there. A troop of footmen from the border of Adair county passed through Friday night to be in time for the parade. As the dear people are protected by legislation against such swindles as lotteries, why not a penalty, as in some other nations, against such impositions as the misleading posters and catalogues of circuses. The late circus was a perfect "fake" to those who saw Barnum's Hippodrome years ago, and some of the most drawing cards were omitted from the afternoon performance. A redeeming feature was the absence of clowns from the rings. A series of bullfodomy was served in front of the negroes' section in lieu of clowns. Most of us will go to the next circus, of course, though the veterans of Hustonville set a noble example by understanding the allurements of the most seductive promises ever made our show-going citizens.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—The authorities are still pursuing the liquor sellers.

—French's circus is billed to show here on the 20th. It is to be hoped that no killings will take place.

—After Poteet was jailed Monday, he reported Steve Prewitt for selling him a pint of whisky last Saturday. Case was tried Tuesday and defendant fined $50. He appealed the case to circuit court.

—Bud Mize, who killed Big John Mink, surrendered to Squire Whitaker, of the Skaggs Creek district, Monday. He was brought to town and trial set for Tuesday. Case was continued to Friday.

HERE WE ARE AGAIN!

Who will be the lucky one this time to get the

HANDSOME PLUSH PARLOR SET?

Which consists of a Sofa, Divan, Rocking Chair, Easy Chair and 2 other Chairs. With every DOLLAR'S WORTH of GOODS you buy will give you a ticket you entitle you to a chance in that Handsome Plush Parlor Set, which will

BE GIVEN AWAY CHRISTMAS WEEK

The talk of the town, everybody interested now in things that are useful, practical and necessary. We like to talk about "things" we have to sell for Fall or Winter Wear. People know when they read about our inducements that they'll not be disappointed when they get to our store, but'll get their money's worth every time. Just now we're loaded to the guards with as varied, fashionable and elegant assortment of Fall and Winter Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Boots, Hats, Carpets, &c., as was ever displayed by any one house in this section of the country, and our prices right now are lower than ever before named for new and elegant goods. In all our departments everything is SIMPLY BOOMING.

We are crowded from early morning till late in the evening with appreciative buyers. Our line of Overcoats and Cloaks are by far the handsomest ever shown here, and what is more, they are the class of goods which are desirable, as they are all of the very latest productions. Don't miss those great bargains we are offering this week and also secure as many tickets as possible on the Plush Parlor Set.

THE + LOUISVILLE + STORE

Main Street, Stanford, Ky.

M. SALINGER, Manager.

NOTICE.

Having secured the services of

MR. THOS. DALTON, OF CHICAGO.

I am now fully prepared to do

ALL KINDS OF WATCH WORK

AND

FINE ENGRAVING

All work warranted and promptly done.

A. R. PENNY.

H. C. RUPLEY,

Merchant Tailor.

Is Receiving His

FALL AND WINTER GOODS.

Goods Warranted and a Perfect Fit Guaranteed. Give him a call.

GO TO.....

A. A. WARREN'S

"MODEL GROCERY"

For Groceries, Glass- and Queensware,

Fruit Jars, Jelly Glasses, Sealing Wax, Etc.

HIGGINS & M'KINNEY

Are headquarters for

Hardware, Groceries, Stoves, Salt, Lime, &c.

Plows! Plows! Plows! Buy the Oliver Chill or Hamilton Steel Plow and you will make no mistake. No plow is equal to those; no plow ever had the run that the Oliver has. Every plow warranted to do good work, or no sale. Ask your neighbor.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Notice.

I would respectfully inform my old friends and customers that I am again at work at my profession and would be pleased to receive any work in the way of Watch, Clock or Jewelry Repairing.

Also repairing Sewing Machines, G. O. A. Pistols, Locks, &c. All

Work Neatly and Promptly Done

And Warranted by

THOMAS RICHARDS, Stanford, Ky.

Room upstairs, Old Fellows' building, entrance next door to post-office. 58-41

REMOVED!

I have removed my office to my residence, opposite Female College, where I will be found at all times. 54

The Lane National Bank at Stanford, Ky., is closing up its affairs. All note-holders and others having claims against said Association are hereby notified to present the same and claims against the Association for payment.

J. R. OWSELEY, Cashier.

—G. L. F.—

WEATHERFORD HOTEL.

HUSTONVILLE, KY.

P. W. GREEN, - - Proprietor.

Having leased the above hotel, refitted and re-furnished, I am prepared to accommodate the public in first-class style. Rates reasonable. Good Livery and Sample Rooms attached. 13-114

MEANS BUSINESS.

Pay your accounts. I mean you. A. R. Penny.
Watches and jewelry repaired and warranted. A. R. Penny.
The best place to buy drugs, patent medicines and toilet articles is at A. R. Penny's.
Buy your school books, ink, tablets, paper, pencils and school supplies of all kinds from A. R. Penny.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Mr. S. H. BATHMAN, who has been very ill, is improving.
B. G. PENNINGTON, of Middleboro, is with his parents here.
Mrs. LAVERGNE, of Somerset, is on a visit to her parents.
Mr. and Mrs. G. C. KILLGORE, spending the week in Harrodsburg.
G. R. COOPER has been sick in bed all week, but was better yesterday.
Mrs. WILLIAM COOPER and Mrs. RICHARDSON went to Louisville Wednesday.
Mr. E. B. HAYDEN, of Providence, is on a visit to his brother, J. W. Hayden.
Mr. GEORGE CARPENTER, of Indianapolis, is visiting his uncle, Mr. J. A. Carpenter.
Mrs. ELLEN MARSHALL and Miss Anna Johnson, of Parksville, are guests of Mrs. C. T. P. Hill.
Mr. GEORGE T. McROBERTS and H. D. Dunn left yesterday to visit Mr. Ben B. McRoberts at Elizaville, Ind.
Miss J. B. DODGE, who has been confined to her room for a week with influenza fever, is convalescing.
Mr. FRANK MATTHEWS passed up Wednesday to his work in Bell county, after a visit to his wife and family at Somerset.
J. V. CRITCHFIELD, of Westmore, is going for White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., to spend a couple of weeks with his parents.
Mrs. DR. C. N. COX and Miss Taylor, of Nelson, and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McKinney were guests of Mrs. Dr. S. H. Becker.

Miss EDITH PENNINGTON, one of the most popular and accomplished young ladies of Stanford, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Krieger, New Albany, Ind., at the University Hotel.
Mr. CHARLES R. BERT, the clever English gentleman, who has made a good citizen and excellent neighbor, will leave in a few days to make his home in Alexandria, Washington.
We are glad to learn from his daughter, Mrs. Dr. Cox, that Mr. H. R. Santley, of Monticello, is nearly himself again both in mind and body, after the first severe illness of a lifetime nearly four years ago.
P. R. CARPENTER, agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., has been given the counties of Rockcastle, Garrard, Lincoln, Pulaski, Wayne and Casey for his special territory, and is up from Louisville to work it up. He tells us he has succeeded well so far.
WOODWARD H. PRISTAL, the big hearted and clever young republican, passed through to Lancaster yesterday. In response to, do I shake the hand of a congressional candidate? "No indeed, you do not," he said with emphasis, adding "Not many of us want to tackle McCracken," or words to that effect.
The J. G. CARPENTER attended the meeting of the American Rheumatological Association at Louisville and read a valuable paper on Nasal and Pharyngeal Manifestations of certain diseases. Dr. I. B. Gillette, of Omaha, who married Miss Corrie Cooper, was also present and read a paper on the "Hygiene of the Upper Respiratory Tracts," which was both interesting and instructive.

CITY AND VICINITY.

CHINA TEA SETS worth $13 for $10. S. S. Myers.
Fresh Fish Thursday and Saturday at M. F. Elkin & Co's.
The best cash price paid for hides and furs. M. F. Elkin & Co.
Elegant line ladies' and misses' cloaks and jackets. Severance & Son.
DINNER SETS of 104 pieces, worth $25, I am now offering for $20. S. S. Myers.
NEW HAMS, dried beef and breakfast bacon at A. A. Warren's Meats Grocery.
Our stock of heating stoves, coal vases, coal hods, kitchen sets is now complete. Call and see before purchasing. Higgins & McKinney.
It was nearly cold enough for frost Wednesday morning, but fortunately none has fallen yet of consequence. The season has been remarkably pleasant.

As back from the cities with a full line of Fall and Winter millinery, which I invite the ladies of this vicinity to call in and inspect. I will have my trimmed goods on Thursday and Friday, Oct. 16 and 17. Miss Annie Wray, Lancaster, St.
BADLY HURT.—Squire G. W. Young, of the Highland precinct, who has been attending the court of claims, was called home Tuesday evening by the sad news that his little two-year-old girl had been fearfully kicked by a horse. The child is still in a critical condition and Dr. O'Bannon, who is attending it, says there is no chance for its recovery.

Born, to the wife of H. E. Carrier on Tuesday night, a 6-month boy.

Very handsome line new combination suits just received. Severance & Son.

For SALE.—Three shares building and Loan Association stock of the original issue. A. A. Warren.

Your taxes must be paid during the month of October. Unless they are 9 percent, will be added on Nov. 1. T. D. Newland, Sheriff.

1. on one of my deputies, will be at Milledgeville, Oct. 16, McKinney, Oct. 17, Harrodsburg, Oct. 18 and 25 and Mr. Salem, Oct. 20, to collect tax. T. D. Newland, Sheriff.

RAILROAD MEN.—I had seen the best and cheapest gold-filled watch cases ever introduced here. All grades of movements at rock-bottom prices and guaranteed, at W. B. McRoberts, The Jeweler.

JESSE THOMPSON, the fashionable barber, has changed his place of business and can now be found in the Commercial Hotel building ready to serve the public. For a neck hair cut or a clean shave he "can't be beat."

MARSHAL JOHN NEWLAND is worthy of the commendation of all good people. He has demonstrated that in the discharge of his official duty he is no respecter of persons, but just and impartial, when they deserve it.

The members of the Christian Endeavor Society will give an entertainment on Monday evening at 7:30 in honor of Mrs. J. A. Richardson, the originator of the society. It will be held at Mrs. Lou Shanks' and will consist of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, etc. A pleasant time is anticipated.

THE J. C. WILSON EXHIBITION of tickets between Birmingham, Ala., and Cincinnati to Lexington, on account of the strike, Oct. 15 to 25, at very low rates. The same route will also stop at Atlanta and return Oct. 14 to 24, good till Nov. 1, at low excursion rates, on account of the Richmond Exposition. See agents at the hotel for full particulars.

LUKE.—The entreaties of fathers and friends the tears of loving mothers induce us to spare them the mortification of seeing their boys' names in print in a disgraceful connection, at least till after the examining trial today. Perhaps we ought not to be yielded, but the flesh is weak when it comes to releasing such requests and adding another sin to the already heavy load of woe that wayward boys have caused them. Two young men were lodged in jail this week by Marshal Newland for drunk and disorderly conduct, who ought to be so ashamed of themselves as to resolve never again to be guilty of conduct that brings disgrace upon themselves and causes the hearts of Christian mothers to bleed in deepest shame and sorrow.

COURT OF CLAIMS.—After quite a busy session of four days, this body adjourned yesterday. As usual, the large claims of the doctors were pretty severely cut, some of them half in two. Mrs. Sue Holmes was allowed $1,887.67 for keeping the paupers, some 30 odd in number, S. M. Owens, as jailer, $900.25. Drs. Doones, Pettus and Zeller contested for the practice at the poor house and the former was elected, his offer being $94.75. Dr. Reid was elected over Drs. Brotnough and Frye for jail physician. Elds. Long and Livingston were put in nomination for poor house preacher, when the former was chosen 10 to 1. The pay is $25. W. M. Bright was re-elected treasurer and qualified with S. H. Shanks secretary.

MESSRS. I. M. White, A. C. Carman, J. W. Hubbards, George Edmonds and P. H. Lidd, all of T. T. Robinson, presented a claim of $1,156.71 for judgment of $200 and costs expended in defending a suit of A. M. Feland against them for damages in opening a county road through his place by order of the court, which it was claimed they transacted. Mr. F. F. Bodditt spoke against the claim and Col. W. G. Welch for the claimants. The justices then struck an average of what each thought they were entitled to and the result was the allowance of $850, though Messrs. Boone, Chappell and Wells voted against it.
The old claim of A. M. Feland for tax lists charged to him as sheriff in 1876 and '77 and which he claims were never collected, owing to the fact that many of the persons were insolvent, dead or never existed, was up again Wednesday. The amount with interest is $1,117.71. Mr. Feland was represented by Messrs. Breckinridge, Harding and Maxwell, all of whom made strong speeches, without effect, however, for the justices voted unanimously to reject the claim. The case has been often before the court with the same result in every instance.

The report of the treasurer shows that $9,171.73 was received by him from all sources since last report and that $9,228.20 had been paid out, leaving a deficit of $56.47 on Oct. 7.
By a hurried footing the claims allowed amount to $2,900.91, exclusive of salaries and idiot claims, which make $2,500 more. Squire Chappell had an order passed which will save the county much money on doctors' bills. It is as follows:
On motion of J. A. Chappell it was ordered that a physician for the paupers be appointed in each magisterial precinct of Lincoln county and the allowance for the medical services be not to exceed the following named sums: Stanford precinct $150; Harrodsburg $70; Harrodsburg $80; Crab Orchard $100; Highland $70; Waynesburg $100; Walnut Flat $50; Middle $50. This order is to be published in four issues of the Interior Journal and the county judge and county clerk are directed to receive bids from the physicians from this date to October 25, 1891, and make contracts with the physician in each precinct offering the lowest bid, which are not to exceed the amounts named. The magistrates of the several precincts are to determine who are paupers.

As marriage is said to be a lottery, an old bachelor wants all newspapers publishing announcements of their exclusion from the mails.
—W. H. Hine and Mrs. Mary Phelps, of Louisville, aged 57 and 52, were married this week. Between them they have only 16 children to begin their new life.
—H. D. Giger, of Ashland, and Miss Minnie Walker were married at Mr. Wade H. Walker's, in Garrard, Wednesday. Mr. Claude Tuttle, of Sherman, Texas, and Miss Kate, daughter of James A. Yeager, were married in the same county the same day.
—Rev. J. B. Savage, pastor of the Georgetown Methodist church, will be married to Miss Zena McConney, of near Lexington, on Wednesday, Oct. 15th. Times. Mr. Savage will be pleasantly remembered here for the stirring series of sermons he preached during the last protracted meeting.
—The marriage of Miss Hannah May Ford to Rev. W. J. Ward was consummated last evening at J. W. Sallee, performing the ceremony in the Baptist church, where a large number of friends had gathered to do honor to the occasion. The bride was very lovely in a neat fitting traveling dress and was the recipient of many compliments and congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Ward took the train at once for a visit to relatives in North Carolina, after which they will extend their travels and be at home to their friends Nov. 5th. Mr. Ward has won a prize and the Interior Journal extends warmest congratulations and hearty good wishes.

to take part in our exercises. Friends of education, trustees and patrons are expected to be present in full force.
Mrs. J. F. GUYER, Miss ALICE STUART, W. F. McCLARY—Committee.
Still Contributes in Her Name.
A lady conversant with the facts hands hands us the following:
"She being dead yet speaketh" are words often spoken, but never more strikingly illustrated than in the present instance. We all remember well the bright, attractive girl, Ella Ramsey, who left us not a few years ago and who from her earliest girlhood was a devoted and active member of her church. She left us first when she became a bride, but returned here many months to her father's home and mother's arms an invalid, to linger a short time and leave us again as "Child of the Lamb," upon which journey she never returned. Though so brief a time a wife, she impressed, it seems, her husband with her ardent love for her church, to which in loving memory he has more than once contributed in her name. But a few days since a letter received from Mr. Chemoer, written upon the eve of his departure for some foreign port, contained a contribution for "her church." In no more fitting way could he bid adieu to his country and the home of his loved one than by this tribute to her memory and the cause she loved. Truly "her works do follow her." X

Death of J. M. Perkins.
BROOKLYN, Oct. 8.—Died, at 4 p. m. Monday, Oct. 6, of typho-malarial fever, John M. Perkins, after 17 days' sickness. He was 27 years old the day he died. Cut down in the vigor of manhood, surrounded with everything desirable to live for. He was married to Miss Mamie E. Martin Feb. 1, 1887. A worthy, devoted and true wife, and two bright children survive him. In his death his wife sustains the loss of a model husband, his children a fond father, his aged parents a worthy son, his brothers and sisters a most worthy brother, the Christian church a consistent and upright member, the town and community a useful citizen. No one in our midst seems to have more friends than he, as was demonstrated by the large funeral procession and concourse of people that attended his burial at the Christian church yard at 3 p. m. Oct. 7. He was a full partner in the tobacco manufacturing and general merchandise firm of Martin & Perkins; also one of the firm of the Broadhead Roller Mill Co. He was a consistent, pleasant, persevering business man, quick to condemn wrongdoing and ever ready and willing to approve the right. The wife, orphans, partner, parents, brothers and sisters have the heart-felt sympathy of the writer and the entire community in their awful bereavement.
Mr. Vernon Signal and Somerset Reporter will please copy.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
POSTED.
I have the knives and their folk's folks, my folks and their folks, as well as colored folks, to trespass on their lands, rights and property in my favor without my permission, or they will be punished severely. I want to see you. I mean what I say. J. H. DANKS, JR.

FALL, 1890.
Blue-Grass Nurseries.
I have the best of fruit and ornamental trees, grapevines, Asparagus, small trees, and everything for the lawn, orchard and garden. We have no agents but sell direct at low prices to the planters. Write or come to see.
H. F. HILLENMEYER, Lexington, Ky.

ASSIGNEE'S SALE.
As Assignee of W. L. Welch, I will on Thursday, Oct. 16th, 1890, at 10 o'clock A. M. sell as a whole his entire stock of CROCKERY, HARDWARE, QUEENWARE, &c., in the storehouse Third street, Danville, Ky. The stock is a large and valuable one and is open for inspection. The stock has been carefully selected, is fresh and clean, and the storehouse, which has been used for years as a grocery store, can be rented by the purchaser. This is a splendid opportunity for a young man to start a business. Terms, cash, unless otherwise stated. JOHN W. VEKES, Jr., Danville, Ky.

Commissioner's Sale
—OF A—
Valuable Lincoln County Farm.
Adair Circuit Court
J. C. Baker, Adm'r, with the will annexed of W. P. Williams, dec'd, Plff., vs. John W. Williams, &c., Defs. Notice
By virtue of a decree in the above styled cause, rendered at the September term, 1890, of the Adair Circuit Court, I will, as Special Commissioner of said Court, on Thursday, Nov. 13th, 1890,
On the premises, sell to the highest bidder at public auction, a certain tract of land known as the Wm. P. Williams farm, lying in Lincoln Co., and being the same land conveyed to Wm. P. Williams by deed dated August 24, 1889, and recorded in the Lincoln County Court Clerk's office, a search of the records made for a full description, containing Acres 2.000 and 24 Poles. Said land will be offered in two or more tracts if it shall be found that the bid or bids will be accepted, and reported within the time the largest amount of money.
At the same time, I will also sell the same terms, a certain tract of land known as the Wm. P. Williams farm, lying in Lincoln Co., and being the same land conveyed to Wm. P. Williams by deed dated Jan. 1, 1889, and recorded in said office, lying in said county, on the waters of Harris Fork. Terms required of the purchasers with good securities, bearing interest from date of sale and having the full and effect of judgments, to wit:
H. C. BAKER, Special Com'r.

Teachers' Association.
Following is the programme for the Lincoln County Teachers' Association, to be held at Crab Orchard, Friday, Oct. 17, at 7 p. m.; and Saturday, 18, at 9 a. m.:
Prayer—Elder J. M. Cook.
Address of Welcome—R. Lee Davis.
Response—Miss Mary Kay.
What We Want to Accomplish—W. F. McClary.
Essay—Miss Cettie Thurmond.
How Can We Secure Local Aid to Public Schools?—J. W. Smith, W. A. Collier and W. C. Wolford.
Trustees' Census Report—Mrs. J. F. Guyer, John A. Chappell and N. W. Hughes.
District Association—G. W. Fry, W. D. Dye.
What Education Means—Miss Lizzie Pettus, Mrs. Anne Carver, J. M. Cook.
How to Secure Advancement—Miss Alice Stuart, R. Lee Davis.
Theory and Practice of Teaching—Mrs. Pattie Hays, Mrs. J. M. Hendricks.
How to Secure a Better Grade of Teachers—J. H. Allen, H. S. Young, G. W. Curtis.
Co-extensive Education of the Sexes—By all the teachers.
Psychology—Prof. Smith, R. Lee Davis, W. H. Michum, N. W. Hughes.
Committee on Reception—Mrs. James Cummings, Miss Mattie Collier, Mrs. W. K. Buchanan, W. J. Edmiston, R. Lee Davis.
All teachers not belonging to the Association are urged to meet with us and

I. M. BRUCE,
LIVERY, SADDLERY AND FEED STABLE,
STANFORD, KY.
SPECIAL ATTENTION TO COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS. Horses and mules bought and sold. Only first-class horses and vehicles used in livery.

BOOTS & SHOES

Our Stock is Now Complete
And Full of the Best Goods on the Market. We are still Sole Agents for the Celebrated

Buell Waterproof Boots,
Also a Large Assortment of
MEN'S, WOMEN'S AND CHILDREN'S SHOES.

In all Grades. Heavy, Medium and Light Weights in Standard Sewed.
HAND SEWED & MACHINE SEWED,
Hand-Turned, Goodyear Welts, in fact almost everything needed in the Boot and Shoe line.
STAGG & McROBERTS.

A. C. SINE J. N. MENEFFEE

Stanford Lumber Yard,

The best selected stock and lowest prices in Central Kentucky.
LUMBER, SASH, FLOORING,
LATH, DOORS, CEILING,
SHINGLES, BLINDS, SIDING,
Verandah and Stairwork at city prices.
Manufacturers of WOVEN WIRE & SLAT FENCE.

We carry a full stock of everything found in a
FIRST-CLASS LUMBER YARD.
Examine our designs and specifications before letting your contract for building.
SINE & MENEFFEE, Stanford, Ky.

ROBERT FENZEL,

—Watch Inspector L. & N. R. R., dealer in—
WATCHES, CLOCKS AND JEWELRY.
Repairing Neatly and Promptly Done. All Work Warranted.
Fine Watches a Specialty.
I will take old gold or silver in exchange for goods. (Stanford, Ky.)

A BIG LINE OF
CHAMBER SETS, TEA SETS

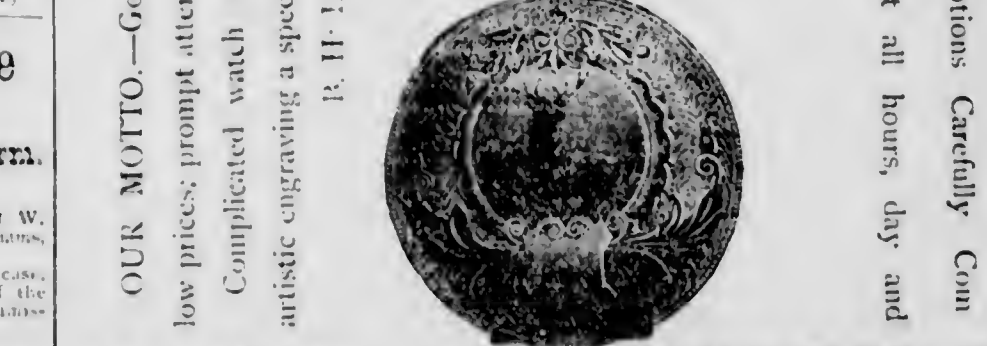

Just Received. Also
A line of Parlor Lamps of the Latest Designs.
Glassware, Queensware and Tinware
Key in stock Country Produce taken in exchange for goods.
MARK HARDIN.

DRUGS and JEWELRY

Drugs, Books and Stationery, Paints, Oils and Window Glass, Wall Paper, Fine Cigars and Tobaccos, Watches, Clocks, Jewelry and Silverware.

HAMPDEN WATCH,

The Best Railroad Watch.
Prescriptions Carefully Compounded at all hours, day and night.
OUR MOTTO—Good work; low prices; prompt attention.
Complicated watch work and artistic engraving a specialty.
B. H. DANKS, Jeweler.

W. B. McROBERTS,
Market Street, 1st Court House, STANFORD, KY.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.
"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription given to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.
Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhea, Eruption, Killa Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion. Without injurious medication.
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 Murray Street, N. Y.

